Action Taken Report: National Seminar

"Russia Ukraine War: Issues and Challenges" (23 March 2022)

Introduction:

The Arts and Science College, under the guidance of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) and the Department of Public Administration and Political Science, organized a successful online national seminar on the topic of "Russia Ukraine War: Issues and Challenges" on 23/03/2022. The seminar was inaugurated by the honorable Pro-Vice Chancellor, Professor Dr. Shyam Shirsat Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University Aurangabad (MS) and the president of the seminar was the Institute founder, Dr. T.P Patil. The seminar's first session featured a keynote speaker, the honorable Dr. Amitabh Singh, Associate Professor and Head of the Department of Political Science at Jawaharlal Nehru University in Delhi, India. The seminar's second session featured a resource person, Dr. Mrudul Nile from the Department of Civics and Politics at the University of Mumbai. The seminar provided a platform for scholars, experts, and students to discuss and exchange ideas on the ongoing conflict between Russia and Ukraine, analyze its geopolitical, economic, and strategic implications, and identify challenges and opportunities for peace building and conflict resolution in the region. The involvement of the IQAC and the esteemed speakers highlights the seminar's quality and significance in contributing to academic discourse on the topic.

Objectives:

1. To provide a platform for scholars, experts, and students to discuss and exchange ideas on the ongoing conflict between Russia and Ukraine.
2. To analyze the geopolitical, economic, and strategic implications of the war and its impact on the region and the world.
3. To examine the historical, cultural, and social factors that have contributed to the conflict and its escalation.
4. To identify the challenges and opportunities for peacebuilding and conflict resolution in the region.

Formulation of problems

Geopolitical tensions and power struggles between Russia and Ukraine, and their implications for the region and the world. Violent conflict, human rights violations, and humanitarian crisis resulting from the war, including displacement of people, loss of lives, and destruction of infrastructure. Historical, cultural, and social factors that have contributed to the escalation of the conflict, and the role of nationalism, identity, and ideology in fueling the conflict. Economic consequences of the war, including the impact on trade, investment, and development in the region. The challenges of peace building, conflict resolution, and reconstruction in the aftermath of the war, including the role of international actors and institutions in promoting peace and stability in the region. The impact of the war on the security landscape of Europe and the wider international community, including the implications for global security and international relations. The potential for the war to escalate and spread beyond Ukraine, and the implications for regional and global stability.

Importance:

The ongoing conflict between Russia and Ukraine has significant geopolitical and strategic implications, not only for the region but also for the world. The conflict has led to a humanitarian crisis, displacement of people, and loss of lives. It is important to analyze the factors that have contributed to the escalation of the conflict and identify potential solutions to promote peace and stability in the region. This seminar provided a platform for experts, scholars, and students to share their perspectives and insights on the conflict and its implications, and to engage in meaningful discussions on the challenges and opportunities for conflict resolution.

The Purpose of National Seminar:

The purpose of the seminar organized by Arts and Science College Chincholi Li Tq. Kannad Dist. Aurangabad (MS) on Russia Ukraine War: Issues and Challenges was to provide a platform for scholars, experts, and students to discuss and exchange ideas on the ongoing conflict between Russia and Ukraine. The seminar aimed to analyze the geopolitical, economic, and strategic implications of the war and its impact on the region and the world. It also aimed to examine the historical, cultural, and social factors that have contributed to the conflict and its escalation, and to identify the challenges and opportunities for peace building and conflict resolution in the region. The purpose of the seminar was to facilitate an informed and constructive discussion on the topic, and to raise awareness about the importance of addressing the conflict and promoting peace and stability in the region.
